Certificate in Business Analysis Training

About the course

OVERVIEW

Would you like to earn 40K a year?

Our Business Analysis course is the starting point for hundreds of Business Analysts each year. Business analysis is the specialist discipline which helps organisations to make good investment decisions concerning potential business changes. Organisations are constantly striving to become more efficient and effective, and Business Analysts support these efforts by clarifying the viable options open to the organisation, evaluating these options and ensuring that the selected solution is defined clearly.

There are five key elements to business analysis:

- Investigating business situations applying a range of techniques to uncover the root causes of problems and identify key issues.
- Analysing business needs understanding the business stakeholders and their views, building a common vision of the desired business system and identifying the required actions for change.
- Evaluating options identifying the options for business change and working with other professionals to define the financial and business impacts for each option.
- Defining requirements modeling and documenting the business and system requirements.
- Managing benefits supporting the project sponsor and project manager in ensuring that any changes to the requirements are reflected in the business case.

Effective business analysis requires both professional skills of investigation, analysis and modeling, and interpersonal skills for working with a range of people. This course will take you through a proven, structured process to improve your ability to collect, analyse and forecast business and financial data in order to generate valuable insights from business data. This course will also teach you how to report on business data and present information and analysis to clients and stakeholders. It is aimed particularly, but not exclusively, at financial and business analysts, managers, planners, customer-service staff, operations staff and information management personnel.

Learning with Study365 has many advantages. The course material is delivered straight to you and can be adapted to fit in with your lifestyle. It is created by experts within the industry, meaning you are receiving accurate information, which is up-to-date and easy to understand.
