Online Lean 5S Training Course

Quality - Support - Innovation

5S is a simple but transformative workplace organisation method. It has helped organisations worldwide increase and sustain high levels of efficiency, saving vast amounts of time and money.

Through our 5S training, you will learn the tools to introduce the method and will have the knowledge to champion the technique at work.

Our 5S online training course is designed in-house by Master Black Belts and is highly practical, including interactive games and activities. By choosing eLearning you can learn at your own pace and in your own time.

This course will allow you to practise and develop your skills, so you complete your training with the confidence and ability to make immediate improvements. You will also receive support from your personal Master Black Belt, who will only ever be an email away.

The course comes with a British English voiceover and is optimised for all devices. You will have access to the training materials for one month.

The examination is multiple-choice and can be taken numerous times. You'll receive a certificate and 2 CPD points on completion plus lifetime support.

100% Effective's online Lean 5S training has a high customer satisfaction rating, with an average score of 5 stars out of 5.
