I completed my ILM Level 7 Certificate in Coaching and Mentoring with Love Your Coaching and have loved every minute of the experience. Initially a little apprehensive about the more academic parts of the qualification, Charlie was continually supportive and reassuring to help me through this. Having expected perhaps quite a technical course to learn specific skills, the most surprising (and insightful) part of the experience for me was the journey of self-awareness. I hadn't expected to learn so much about myself in the process and to see the impact of this newfound insight to have such an impact on all my relationships, not just with coaches, but also with my husband and children. Charlie is always calm and non-judgmental and his genuine passion for supporting people to become great coaching is felt throughout. I'd heartily recommend developing as a coach with Charlie's support if you are interested in truly developing a coaching mindset, not just a superficial coaching skillset.	Aya Ferguson	Strategic change consultant, Mahout Change
Charlie was a great Course Director whilst I studied for the ILM Level 3 in Coaching. Not only was he understanding of personal workload and individual learning requirements, but he created a safe space within which to learn and make mistakes. Charlie created a fun and practical learning environment: lots of scenarios, breakout opportunities, and practice sessions alongside theory and carefully constructed course content. The faculty group with newsletter sharing best practice advice is also really useful post qualification. I would definitely work with Love Your Coaching again and would recommend him	Chalene Hanson	Project delivery manager, Gatenby Sanderson

Charlie recently supported me in obtaining my Level 7 Certificate in Executive Coaching and Mentoring through Love Your Coaching. Charlie is a fantastic coach and trainer and was an incredible support over the last few months. I really valued his input and feedback on my own coaching and more so his coaching of me! His passion for coaching is clear and it's easy to engage with him thanks to his supportive, guiding and committed approach. I really enjoyed the time working towards my qualification and will be forever grateful to Charlie for all of his support.	Claire Grant	HR Business Partner, Eurostar
I cannot recommend Love Your Coaching as a coach training provider highly enough. I studied for the ILM Level 7 Executive Coaching & Mentoring qualification with them. Charlie is the best trainer I have ever been taught by because he is so knowledgeable and encouraging, with an undaunting, relaxed teaching style. I feel that doing the course with him has been the making of me as a coach. Not only has it upskilled me, so that I can coach on a greater range of issues, I have been able to use my new coaching knowledge to improve the delivery of training and workshops that I run. Thank you Charlie for your continued support and guidance.	Fay Wallis	CEO, Bright Sky HR

Charlie provided me with 1-2-1 business coaching over a 7 month period. He worked closely with me to ensure that I was working on my business and not just in it. His coaching enabled me to focus on my business goals and to overcome challenges. He used effective coaching tools and his knowledge and experiences of the education sector made a significant difference to the results I have managed to achieved during the time he coached me Charlie is friendly, supportive and encouraging. He has a calm and assured manner and is flexible too. His willingness to support me via email and phone outside scheduled coaching sessions made a difference to the quality of our coaching relationship. The coaching relationship that he establishes with you makes you feel comfortable enough to share confidential information about your business. As a result of Charlie's coaching support, MYPAL has increased product sales, improved our brand recognition to be seen as experts in our field and I have been approached to write a monthly column for the largest online news site for my industry	Genevieve Knight	CEO Mypal
Cannot recommend Charlie enough. His knowledge and passion is amazing. Charlie trained me earlier this year while I gain my L5 coaching qualification. He is always on hand if you require any help and nothing is ever a problem. If you are serious about coaching or looking for someone to train your team, Charlie is definitely the person for you.	Samantha Powell	EA, Ofcom
