Get the Skills You Need to Lead Your Team!

Get the fundamental skills every new manager needs

This fully interactive online workshop provides an introduction to staff supervision by outlining how to successfully transition to the role, then defining the role and responsibilities of a supervisor.

There is a module on managing time because you'll need to be as productive as you can.

We end with a module on communicating effectively, so you can be sure to avoid the biggest source of problems in any staff management role.

You'll get a far-reaching insight into how to move from being a team member to being a team leader, and the skills and understanding you get will last a lifetime.

Watch the modules, revisit them time and again ... and have fun with improving your skills!

Learning options

This course is delivered as fully interactive online content which you can pause, re-run and revisit as often as you like. You can view the content in any order, and review whatever you like at any time.

The course is offered with the following option:

Fast Track option

You don't get extra learning resources, but it's a quick and easy way to go.

This option is for you if you want good coverage of the subject but have limited time or budget.

Development option

This is our most popular course option because it also includes a comprehensive ZandaX workbook and Development Plan which allows you to engage fully and deepen your understanding enormously.

This option is for you if you're serious about your development.
