Overview of CeMAP Module 1

Would you like to be a mortgage advisor? The Certificate in Mortgage Advice and Practice is an Ofqual-regulated and mandated qualification in the Mortgage Advisor Apprenticeship Standard. Become a member of the London Institute of Banking & Finance (LIBF). CeMAP meets the education standard set by the Financial Conduct Authority. Achieve a 'licence to practice' and legally offer mortgage advice to first-time buyers, clients, and homeowners.

If you're considering a career in this field, presently, there's a skills gap in the market and this is the perfect time to study the course. Qualified mortgage advisors receive generous commission rates and excellent employment prospects. Whether you start your career in the public sector or private banking sector, it can be incredibly rewarding as you build on your experience and progress to more senior roles.

Learners are requested to purchase the exam directly from LIBF in order to receive the CeMAP Module 1 Certification.

Testimonials

Going above and beyond to exceed customer expectation

“I would like to leave this review to thank the company especially Roshell who has demonstrated excellent customer service and amazing consideration in helping with all the matters that have been requested. I had to extend the course time due to covid and she has taken that to her management and came back with an option that that has suited both sides. I take my hat in front of her and thank her my heart. I would give 10 stars if I could.”
